DECREE OF THE BISHOP OF MAITLAND-NEWCASTLE

General Decree – Volunteering with the Catholic Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle

7/2018

The volunteer handbook arose out of a need for the Diocese to have a consistent, transparent, and verifiable process for the induction, formation, and ongoing management of people who wish to minister in their communities and the wider diocese. The handbook was compiled after consultation with stakeholders and the appropriate civil legal experts. It has been utilised ad experimentum for over twelve months.

I wish to thank you for volunteering within the Catholic Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle. By choosing to volunteer you are joining more than 10,000 volunteers across schools, parishes, agencies and diocesan programs. Part of your role as a volunteer is to ensure the safety and wellbeing of yourself and the wider community.

The Volunteer Handbook forms an integral part of the induction of volunteers and provides a valuable resource and support to confidently meet our requirements in terms of our duty of care and our civil compliance with legislation.

The handbook addresses specifically our responsibilities and duty of care towards those who volunteer. The handbook clearly states the expectations and requirements of those who choose to provide valuable services to the church and wider community.

The handbook establishes best practice for our compliance with the respective and appropriate legislative requirements which govern our civil interaction. It provides a very practical guide for those in leadership or management roles to ensure the processes and necessary documentation relevant to the engagement and utilisation of volunteers are both understood and actioned.

It is a requirement of all volunteers to complete an induction and the documents that form the Volunteer Handbook. Failure to complete the induction and associated documents outlined in the handbook will result in refusal to engage in a volunteer relationship with the Catholic Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle.

I decree that the Volunteer Handbook and the associated induction is particular law for the Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle.

Given at Hamilton NSW on the 4th day of September 2018.

Most Reverend William Wright
Bishop of Maitland-Newcastle

The Vision, Mission, Principles and Teaching of the Catholic Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle

Vision

To live the joy of the Gospel and share it with the world.

Mission

The Diocesan Synod of 1992-93, acting on behalf of the diocesan community, resolved to embrace and promote the Vatican II understanding of the Church's mission contained in the following:

The Church, because it is the People of God and the Body of Christ enlivened by his Spirit, is called to be a sign and instrument of communion with God and of unity among all people (LG1).

The Church exists to promote the Kingdom of God on earth (LG5). This it does by proclaiming Christ – the Good News of God's love for all people – and by working in the world for justice, peace and reconciliation.

This mission finds its source and summit in the Eucharist (LG11) which, when lived in everyday life and celebrated in the liturgy, is both the living symbol of Christ's life, death and resurrection and celebrates the deepest identity of the Church as a communion of life, love and truth (LG9).

All those who, through Baptism, have been initiated into the community of the Church have the right and duty to participate in its life and mission as a response to the Spirit in their lives (LG3). We are called to live out the commandment of Jesus: 'Love one another as I have loved you' (Jn 15:12).

Theological Principles

- ▶ Seek First the Kingdom of God (Mt 6:33)
- ▶ The Equality of All Believers
- ▶ Faith Development is a Life-Long Process
- ▶ The Dignity of the Human Person
- ▶ Diversity of Gifts
- ▶ Diversity of Ministries, Unity of Purpose
- ▶ Servant Leadership
- ▶ Decision-Making by Discernment
- ▶ Read the Signs of the Times
- ▶ Concern for Ecumenism

Catholic Social Teaching

The Common Good The common good is understood as the collection of social conditions that make it possible for each social group and all its individual members to achieve their potential.

Dignity of the Human Person Each member of the human family is equal in dignity and has equal rights because we are all children of the one God.

Preferential Option for the Poor How societies treat their most vulnerable members, the poor, must have an urgent moral claim on the conscience of a nation.

Solidarity An essential stance of faith and a feature of moral consciousness recognising that we belong to one human family.

Stewardship of Creation We must all respect, care for and share the resources of the earth, which are vital for people's common good.

Subsidiarity and Participation People have both a right and a duty to participate in those decisions that most directly affect them.

Volunteering

Welcome and thank you for your generosity in offering to be a volunteer in our diocesan community.

You are providing a gift like no other when you spend your time with us.

As a volunteer within the Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle you are a valued member of the community.

The aim of this handbook is to give you an introduction to volunteering and provide you with information about the types of services in which you are volunteering.

This handbook will form part of your volunteer induction. Further training and information may be required for specific volunteer roles.

The Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle values the significant contribution volunteers make to all our programs and services.

Volunteers bring a rich and diverse mixture of culture, life experience and expertise from their communities.

They complement and enhance the person-centred care provided by our employees.

Our volunteers enrich the quality of life for the people we support and their families and in turn are enriched by their experiences.

Volunteers must have the maturity and ability to assist with our programs. Young children may volunteer under the supervision of a parent or guardian.

Written parental consent is essential for those under the age of 18 years, who wish to volunteer.

Volunteer Induction

As a new volunteer, you will be guided through an induction process. This process will include an induction as a volunteer as well as to the service site. The purpose is to familiarise you with the processes, policies and procedures that will make your time volunteering in our diocese safe and rewarding.

Induction will include:

- ▶ completion of required forms
- ▶ discussion about the contents of the volunteer handbook
- ▶ an introduction to your role.

Part of your volunteer role may require specific experience(s) and/or training as necessary. All training required will be discussed with you prior to your accepting a volunteer role.

During your induction, you will be guided through the volunteer handbook so you will have an opportunity to have any questions answered. We encourage you to ask questions and discuss the information to enable you to have a better understanding of your rights as a volunteer and also what is required of you as a volunteer.

Organisational policies and procedures applicable to your role as a volunteer can be viewed at www.mn.catholic.org.au/people/volunteer/

We hope you will enjoy your induction and look forward to you joining our volunteer team.

Safeguarding

Detailed information is available from the Office of Safeguarding (OoSG) website www.officeofsafeguarding.org.au

The Office of Safeguarding is open during office hours
Monday to Friday P 4979 1390

1. Volunteer Screening

We take Safeguarding seriously. All volunteers undergo the appropriate form of screening, based on the role they are volunteering for, including:

- ▶ a Working with Children Check (WWCC)
- ▶ a National Police Check (NPC).

Your local volunteer supervisor can assist you in understanding the appropriate screening procedures that you will be required to undertake in your volunteering role.

If any concerns arise from the statutory screening, we will talk with you. Information obtained from a WWCC or NPC are highly confidential and protected by law. The diocese is subject to the National Privacy Principles.

2. Obligations to Protect – Reporting

Volunteers are legally required to inform the diocese if they have been charged with any criminal offences which may impact on their ability to perform in their role as a volunteer. Volunteers are required to inform the HR Talent & Volunteer Manager within one business day from the time they become a disqualified person under the Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012. This requirement includes any disqualification made against you external to the program or service in which you are volunteering. All information provided to the HR Talent & Volunteer Manager will also be forwarded to the OoSG.

The OoSG was established to support you in safeguarding children and vulnerable adults. If you are concerned for the safety, welfare or wellbeing of a child/vulnerable person, you should discuss your concerns with your volunteer supervisor or the HR Talent & Volunteer Manager or you can directly contact the OoSG (Ph 4979 1390).

The more concerned you are for a child's safety, the more urgent it is that you report your concerns to the OoSG. Preferably as soon as possible, certainly within 24 hours.

If you have concerns for the wellbeing of a vulnerable adult, you should talk with your volunteer supervisor. It's important that the vulnerable adult's voice is heard and their right for self-determination is respected as much as possible. You can contact the OoSG for guidance (Ph 4979 1390).

The OoSG will ensure that any concerns that should be reported to authorities will be, including Police and statutory child protection departments. You can also choose to report to statutory authorities if you believe you should.

If you make a report in good faith, even if you are mistaken, you are protected.

3. Volunteers and the reportable conduct scheme

The Office of the Children's Guardian is responsible for overseeing the revised 'reportable conduct scheme'.

As a volunteer in the diocese that holds a working with children check for the purpose of their role, if it is alleged that you have committed a sexual offence or sexual misconduct against a child, ill-treatment of a child, neglect of a child, physical assault or behaviour that causes significant emotional or psychological harm to a child you will be reported to the Office of the Children's Guardian. You may also be reported for concealing child abuse or for having been convicted of certain offences against children.

The OoSG has a legal obligation to investigate alleged reportable conduct, overseen by the Office of the Children's Guardian. Allegations of abusive misconduct against vulnerable adults will also be investigated by the OoSG. The OoSG will ensure that volunteers are afforded procedural fairness.

If you are the subject of a 'sustained finding' it may affect your ability to continue volunteering with the diocese.

4. Mandatory Reporters

Section 27, (1) a person in religious ministry, or a person providing religious-based activities to children.

In NSW those who are mandatory reporters have a legislative requirement to report a suspicion of risk of significant harm (RoSH) to the Department of Communities and Justice (DCJ).

A mandatory reporter is a person who, in the course of his or her professional work or other paid employment delivers health care, welfare, education, children's services, residential services, or law enforcement, wholly or partly, to children.

On 1 March 2020 mandatory reporter groups NSW expanded to also include:

- ▶ a person in religious ministry, or a person providing religion-based activities to children (paid or unpaid)
- ▶ a registered psychologist providing a professional service as a psychologist.

Health Issues/Medication while volunteering

Never purchase, give or administer medication to anyone.

If you are concerned about the person's welfare or treatment, please speak to your volunteer supervisor.

You must advise the volunteer supervisor of any allergies you have. You need to be aware the people we support may themselves have allergies, particularly to nuts etc.

Infection Control

It is important to be aware of the risk of spreading infection. Preventing the spread of infection is especially important when working with children and the elderly.

If you have an infection or virus (eg flu) it is important to contact the volunteer supervisor or his/her delegate before going to your volunteer role, as it may be safer for you, and the people you may come into contact with, for you to recover fully before returning to your role.

You should check and maintain your own vaccination status for common childhood illnesses and tetanus.

Smoking is not permitted in programs, services and schools.

Excursions

Risk assessments are completed prior to all excursions. Volunteers will be advised of details of their role if they attend excursions.

Personal Disclosures

Under no circumstances should you give out your personal details to anyone other than your supervisor. This includes your home address, contact number or email address. This is to protect your own privacy and safety.

Giving Gifts

We discourage all volunteers from giving or receiving additional gifts to or from anyone. This may include home-cooked meals, money, other personal items or offers of transport or help outside the agreed volunteering role.

Confidentiality and Privacy

Confidentiality

While you are working as a volunteer you may receive or overhear confidential information regarding people we support – staff, students or other volunteers. Information received must be kept confidential. This is a legal requirement.

Discussing information you have received during your volunteer role with staff, students, family, friends or other volunteers – inside or outside the Diocese – is not acceptable or tolerated.

If you have an issue or concern, please discuss this with the volunteer supervisor.

Confidentiality requirements apply to the use of social media and email.

Privacy of Volunteers

Privacy laws protect personal information about volunteers (including photographs and video footage), and people our volunteers may come into contact with through their role and staff. You may need to be told specific details about a child to enable you to carry out your volunteer role. We will only provide information that is necessary for your role. Not all volunteers you are working with may need to be aware of this information.

Therefore, this information needs to be treated as private and confidential.

We hope you will become a valuable member of the team providing support for many in our community. To achieve this aim you need to develop a relationship with the people throughout the Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle, staff, students and other volunteers within the community. These relationships must, however, respect professional and Safeguarding boundaries.

Work Health & Safety (WHS)

The Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle is committed to ensuring the health, safety and welfare of its workers (ie employee, contractor or subcontractor, employee of labour hire company, outworker, apprentice or trainee work experience student and volunteer, visitors and the public in workplaces and also the health and safety of those who may be affected by its operations. In securing workplace health and safety, the Diocese will pursue best practice in Work Health and Safety (WHS), fulfil its statutory duties with regard to WHS and through continual improvement, strive to prevent injuries and illnesses in the workplace.

The Diocese accepts that it must adopt high standards of WHS Management (WHSM) and will aim, as far as practicable, to achieve this through the following objectives:

- ▶ Ensuring all officers, workers and visitors are aware of their responsibilities in relation to safety and holding them accountable for providing and/or maintaining a safe and healthy workplace;

- ▶ Complying with the Work Health and Safety Act 2011 (NSW) and Work Health and Safety Regulations 2011 (NSW) including applicable Standards and Codes of Practice so far as is reasonably practicable;
- ▶ Adopting a pro-active risk management approach to workplace health and safety as an integral part of overall business operations;
- ▶ Consulting with and involving workers in decisions impacting on their health and safety;
- ▶ Considering the health and safety impacts of our business decisions, including purchasing, equipment design and organisational change;
- ▶ Providing and maintaining safe systems of work including premises, plant, structures, substances, equipment and systems that are safe and without risks to health;

- ▶ Providing relevant information, instruction, training and supervision as may be necessary to enable workers and visitors to work in a manner which will minimise risk of injury or ill health; and
- ▶ Ensuring that the health and the conditions at the Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle workplaces are monitored for the purpose of preventing illness or injury.

The conduct of every person under the control of the Diocese is expected to be such that it does not contribute to the occurrence of incidents or the creation of hazards, which may endanger the health and safety of others. The Diocese encourages all workers and others who visit our sites to regard incident prevention and safe working as an individual and collective responsibility.

Specific Responsibilities of Workers

Duty of Care

Duty of care is the duty to do what a reasonable person would do in a given situation and to take precautions against the risk of harm to others.

Responsibilities

It is everyone's responsibility to make his/her workplace safe and happy. As a volunteer under the Work Health & Safety legislation you now have the same responsibilities as any employee of the diocese.

The diocese has a responsibility to:

- ▶ provide a safe and healthy working environment
- ▶ take action to identify and control hazards in the workplace
- ▶ supply personal protective equipment if required
- ▶ provide training information and instruction to operate safe working systems.

Volunteers have a responsibility to:

- ▶ work safely, following safe work procedures
- ▶ work within the limits of their role description
- ▶ not put others at risk
- ▶ report any hazards, near misses, mishaps or injuries.

Hazards

A hazard is anything that has the potential to cause injury or illness or property damage.

Hazards can be:

- ▶ physical – slippery floors, broken equipment
- ▶ chemical – cleaning products
- ▶ workplace design – poor lighting
- ▶ biological – exposure to germs, fungal spores etc
- ▶ psychological – bullying and harassment.

Reporting a hazard can prevent someone from being injured. It is important that if you notice or are made aware of any hazard, you notify the volunteer supervisor immediately.

Accidents/incidents

All accidents and incidents that occur whilst you are undertaking your volunteer role must be reported to the Volunteer Manager. The volunteer supervisor must be notified to assist you with any immediate first aid or more serious injury requiring medical support or hospital care.

Where applicable, volunteers are covered by insurance during the course of their duties. There are some limitations with this insurance. For further details if you have any concerns, contact the Volunteer Manager on 4979 1145.

Common injury exposures (hazardous manual tasks, heights work and slip/trip/fall)

- ▶ A manual task “is any activity requiring the use of force exerted by a person to lift, lower, push, pull, carry, or otherwise move, hold or restrain any animate or inanimate object”. As you can see from this definition, manual tasks are something we do as an everyday part of life. They become hazardous when they are repeated, involve awkward positions, require use of high force or involve holding still for long periods. This area of safety has the greatest number of injuries for all industries. Slips, trips and falls are generally second and usually result from poor housekeeping (ie leaving things lying around). Work at heights should only be done by people with experience and recent heights training.

- ▶ Volunteers must work within their range of comfort and ability when undertaking manual tasks and not expose themselves or others to the risk of injury. If you have an existing injury or condition that could impact on your role, you need to inform the volunteer supervisor so that we are aware of the condition and provide you with assistance. You are also responsible for not doing any activity which could make your injury or condition worse.

We hope you will have a positive and rewarding experience as a volunteer with the Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle and we thank you for the time you will give in supporting our Diocese.

1. Introduction and Purpose

Message from the Bishop

I am pleased to introduce the Catholic Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle (the Diocese) Code of Conduct which sets out the standards of conduct, professional and personal behaviour the Diocese requires of its workers to uphold and encourage a safe, supportive, productive and harmonious workplace.

Workers have a responsibility to uphold these standards including the teachings and values of the Catholic Church and to avoid by word, action or public lifestyle, behaviours which are contrary to those teachings and values.

The Diocese is committed to the delivery of services consistent with the principles and standards detailed in the resources Integrity in the Service of the Church supported by the definition of appropriate standards of professional and person conduct contained within this Code of Conduct.

The principles we follow are extensions of the five basic principles for Church workers being:

- ▶ a commitment to justice and equity
- ▶ upholding the dignity of all people and their right to respect
- ▶ a commitment to safe and supportive relationships
- ▶ outreach to those who are poor, alienated or marginalised
- ▶ striving for excellence in all their work.

2. Scope

This Code of Conduct applies to all workers of the Diocese. Workers include paid employees, religious, volunteers, contractors and students on work placements.

The Code outlines the obligations, responsibilities and standard of behaviour the Diocese requires of all workers, to uphold the values, integrity and reputation of the Diocese. It does not form part of an employee's contract of employment.

Workers are to make themselves familiar with the requirements of this document and ensure they comply with the behaviours and obligations outlined within it.

Failure to comply with the responsibilities and obligations outlined in this document may result in disciplinary action being taken and termination of employment or engagement. This could result in the notification to external agencies and/or criminal charges.

Certain sections of the Code reflect the requirements of legislation, and breaches of these conditions may be punishable under law.

3. Commitment to Safeguarding

The Diocese has a particular and abiding commitment to safeguard children and vulnerable adults, particularly those who participate in the life of the Diocese.

Workers of the Diocese are expected to:

- ▶ foster communities of safeguarding that recognise and uphold the dignity, diversity and rights of all children and vulnerable adults
- ▶ empower children and vulnerable adults to have their say and to be listened to
- ▶ encourage open communication with families and communities to enable them to participate in decisions about the safety of children and vulnerable adults
- ▶ foster safe and supportive relationships between diocesan workers, children and vulnerable adults
- ▶ be aware of the signs of abuse and neglect and the indicators of increased situational and individual risk
- ▶ respond to disclosures of abuse from a child or vulnerable adult appropriately, with care and support for the individual foremost
- ▶ ensure that concerns for the safety, welfare and wellbeing of children and vulnerable adults are reported to the Office of Safeguarding and external authorities
- ▶ give appropriate support to police and other statutory and Diocesan authorities in conducting inquiries into alleged abuse, in accordance with those canonical, statutory and other obligations relevant to a diocesan worker
- ▶ participate in safeguarding training in accordance with diocesan expectations
- ▶ support diocesan assessment and management of elevated risks to children or vulnerable adults
- ▶ act in accordance with diocesan policies and procedures in managing complaints
- ▶ contribute to diocesan compliance with the National Principles for Child Safe Organisations and the National Catholic Safeguarding Standards.

4. Lawful Compliance

Workers must act lawfully and comply with all legislative, contractual and industrial requirements while engaged by the Diocese. Workers must comply with the Diocese's policies and follow all reasonable and lawful directions given by the Diocese.

5. Ethical Behaviour

Workers of the Diocese are expected to:

- ▶ respect the dignity, rights and views of others
- ▶ listen and seek to understand different points of view (this does not necessarily mean agreeing with the point of view)
- ▶ act respectfully at all times, including respecting cultural, ethnic and religious differences
- ▶ acknowledge the genuine contributions that others make
- ▶ express constructive feedback considerately and in a moderate tone
- ▶ not harass, bully or discriminate against colleagues, students, people we support or members of the community
- ▶ be courteous, fair, sensitive and considerate to the needs of others
- ▶ be honest and act with integrity at all times
- ▶ actively assist in managing workplace conflict that personally affects them or workers under their supervision to create positive and constructive outcomes.

6. Professional Behaviour and Development

Workers of the Diocese are expected to:

- ▶ maintain a high standard and quality of work
- ▶ maintain and develop knowledge and understanding of their area of expertise
- ▶ continuously seek to improve work performance and bring about improvements in the workplace
- ▶ exercise care, responsibility and sound judgement when carrying out their duties

- ▶ where relevant, adhere by any dress code requirements of the Diocese
- ▶ maintain confidentiality and privacy where required
- ▶ report to the Diocese any instance where the staff member believes they, or anyone within their workplace, has breached an obligation under this policy.

7. Conflicts of Interest

A conflict of interest includes any circumstance, whether actual or perceived, arising from a conflict between the performance of a staff member's professional duties with the Diocese and their personal interests. Workers are to take all appropriate steps to disclose a conflict of interest (or potential conflict) to the Diocese as soon as the staff member becomes aware of it.

A conflict can arise when there is a reasonable expectation of a personal benefit, direct or indirect, for a staff member that could influence the performance of their duties. This benefit may be financial or non-financial.

Workers must take suitable measures to avoid, or appropriately deal with, any situation or relationship they may have where a conflict of interest could, directly or indirectly, compromise the performance of their duties.

A staff member may ask themselves the following questions to assist in identifying whether a situation or relationship is potentially a conflict of interest:

- ▶ Do I have personal interests that may conflict, or be perceived to conflict, with my position at the Diocese?
- ▶ Could there be benefits for me now, or in the future, that could cast doubt on my objectivity?
- ▶ How will my involvement in the decision or action be viewed by others?
- ▶ Does my involvement appear fair and reasonable in all the circumstances?

8. Gifts and Benefits

Workers must not solicit or accept gifts, benefits or hospitality which might be reasonably seen to either directly or indirectly compromise or influence their professional duties with the Diocese.

All gifts must be brought to the attention of the relevant manager who will decide how the gift should be treated, in line with the Diocese financial protocols and policies.

Generally gifts of a nominal value or moderate acts of hospitality offered as a genuine thank you by a client, may be personally retained as long as they have not been solicited by the staff member or could be seen to have comprised or unduly influenced the staff member's professional duties with the Diocese.

Gifts or hospitality offered as an inducement to purchase, provide information or treat some-one favourably are not acceptable regardless of their monetary value. Examples of inducement include a recruitment agency offering theatre tickets for each temporary person engaged.

Gifts, such as a Christmas hamper or a box of chocolates from a consultant, should be shared and made available for consumption by all workers. Consideration should also be given to donating such gifts to charity.

9. Secondary Employment

Staff members employed on a full-time basis must seek and obtain approval in writing from the Diocese prior to engaging in any secondary employment or business activity, including employment within a family company.

Part-time and casual staff members must also seek approval to undertake secondary employment from the Diocese if the employment may result in potential conflicts of interest that could adversely impact on the staff member's ability to perform their duties with the Diocese, including work, health and safety concerns, or where the secondary employment may affect the Diocese financial position, services or standing in the community.

Approval for secondary employment is still required when workers are on leave, including periods of leave without pay.

Where a staff member is already involved in secondary employment, they must provide details of the secondary employment to the Diocese and obtain the necessary approval.

Current and former staff members are to seek and obtain approval in writing from the Diocese to act in the capacity of a volunteer.

10. Social Media

Workers should not use social media in a manner which may bring the Diocese into disrepute. Refer to the Social Media Policy for the Diocese and associated documents in this regard.

11. Public Comment

Only authorised workers are permitted to make public statements or give interviews on behalf of the Diocese to a media representative.

12. Management and Resources

Workers must use the Diocese resources economically and ethically. Such resources include money, facilities, equipment (e.g. phones, computers, iPads, and fax machines), vehicles, services (e.g. internet) and any other property which is owned or is the responsibility of the Diocese. Workers also have a duty to ensure the Diocese resources are used only for their intended purpose, are well maintained and secured against theft or misuse.

Workers are fully accountable for the use of the Diocese work time and resources. Workers should not use the Diocese work time or resources for an outside interest, secondary employment or personal gain, such examples include the development of a new commercial idea or writing a book.

Workers have a duty to report to the Diocese any improper use, waste or abuse of resources, corrupt or fraudulent conduct or inadequate administration or accountability.

13. Protected Disclosures

In reporting any suspected improper use, fraud, waste or abuse of resources, corrupt conduct, inadequate administration or accountability, workers are entitled to seek support and protection when making such disclosures, and to be notified of the action taken in relation to the disclosure.

Workers are not entitled to protection for disclosures which, on investigation, are found to be vexatious or malicious allegations, and may be liable for disciplinary action as a result.
